

SERVE OPPORTUNITIES

Give to the Kingdom

- Non-perishable food items on the 2nd Sunday of each month for Coalition for Human Care
- Crackers packs for at-risk students & fruit cups for senior citizens weekly donations (Food Bank)
- Toiletries for Bethany House & Bethesda, Inc., homes that help people recover from substance abuse
- Donations for missions throughout the year (blankets/pillows for Coalition, school supplies for Back Packs for Students, Shoebox Ministry sending Christmas gifts to Armenia, Angel Tree gifts, etc.)
- Monetary donations, specified to missions

Serve Short Term

- Beyond the Walls Week (4/27-5/5, opportunities to be scheduled)
- Apostles Build, home construction with Habitat (multiple opportunities throughout the year)
- Paint a room, build a shed, or repair a house for Habitat (contact office for available dates)
- Provide an evening meal or stay as an overnight host at the Family Promise house, a shelter for women with children (4/1-2; 6/10-11)
- Lead a group, supervise an activity or set up props for VBS (6/17-20 in the evenings)
- Provide a meal for youth group on a Sunday evening
- Feed the Hunger, food packing event (TBA)
- UMCOR hygiene kits or cleaning buckets to aid recovery efforts after natural disasters (as needed)

Serve Regularly in House

Volunteering with children & youth:

- Help on Sunday nights, working with teens (5-7 pm) or kids (4-5:45 pm)
- Help prepare Sunday evening meals for our youth group
- Help assist on Sunday mornings with children's church and/or Sunday school

Volunteering with Congregational Care:

- Join a team that sends birthday, get well, and sympathy cards to our church family
- Visit church folks who live in nursing homes
- Provide a meal when a family is going through a birth, a death, or an illness

Volunteering in the office:

Show hospitality to visitors by answering the phone in the church office during the week

Help prep the sanctuary on Fridays by restocking pew pockets and organizing hymnals

Organize and maintain volunteer lists

Serve Regularly in the Community

Boys and Girls Club of the Sandhills: Help support the educational goals of children in our community at the Boys and Girls Club by volunteering to help with homework, read to kids, help in the kitchen or office, or mentor a child. Call their office for a full list of opportunities at 692-0777.

Family Promise: Prepare a meal or spend the night at this local shelter for homeless families. Contact their office at 944-7149 to learn more.

Habitat for Humanity: Help build affordable housing for qualifying candidates in our community. Sign up to build by going to sandhillshabitat.org and choosing “volunteer” to access the schedule. Contact Rosemary Weber at 295-1934 for more information or for other volunteer opportunities.

Coalition for Human Care: Volunteer in the thrift store, food pantry, or help clients with job searches. Call 693-1600 for more information or to schedule a tour.

Martha’s Place: Help prepare and serve a hot meal and bag lunch for approximately 80 people every other week. Every other Tuesday a team from PUMC works with other volunteers at Page Memorial UMC. Please contact Carolyn Gourley at Page Memorial UMC at 944-1093 to learn more.

Food Bank of Central and Eastern NC: Contact Michael Cotton at mcotten@foodbankcenc.org or call the Food Bank at 692-5959 for available volunteer positions at the Food Bank.

Moore Free & Charitable Clinic: Physicians, Nurse Practitioners, Physician Assistants, office volunteers, and medical coders can volunteer at the clinic, which provides primary care services to the uninsured in Moore County. For more information, contact the clinic at 246-5333.

Linden Lodge: Prepare a meal and dine with residents or assist them in social networking areas. Linden Lodge provides opportunities for men and women with serious and persistent mental illness to live, work, and learn. Contact Marianne Kernan at 295-0600 for more details or to volunteer.

Prancing Horse Therapeutic Horsemanship: If you have a passion for horses and helping, this ministry dedicated to serving individuals with special needs is for you. Contact Judy Lewis for more information at 246-3202.

Lead a Mission

Lead a mission trip locally or abroad

Lead a regular mission for local agency